

Literacy

- Children will write a recount about the Anglo- Saxon invasions on Britain.
- They will be able to recognise different types of poetry and be able to write and perform their own poems.
- They will look at non-fiction texts as a historical resource to find information and use it in their topic work.
- Children will know all about historical stories and some of their features. We will write our own Historical story about the Vikings.

Traders and Raiders!

Autumn 2 2016

Year 4

Maths

- Children will be learning different methods for division as well as practising our fluency of our times tables.
- Children will develop knowledge of telling the time.
- Children will apply knowledge of decimal numbers by using money.
- We will be looking at 2d shapes and beginning to recognise all their properties and identifying regular and irregular shapes.

Computing

- Children will learn how to use the Internet Safely as well as understanding how Networks are used.
To be able to use code to make a programme respond how we want it to.

P.E.

- To practise throwing and catching skills in invasion games including attacking and defending skills.
- To recognise the changes to the body during and after exercise.
- To learn Football, Netball in more detail and apply these skills during match situations.

Music

- Children will learn to play the recorder with confidence and accuracy.

History

- Children will find out about all about the events that led to the demise of the Roman Empire particularly in Britain.
- They will begin to understand the way of life under the Vikings and how they changed the lives of the Anglo-Saxons.
- They will know the chronological order of Kings from Romans - to 1066.

Science

- Children will explore our digestive system.
- Children will create a digestive system t-shirt model.
- They will demonstrate how the stomach digests food and gets rid of waste products.

Art/DT

- Children will design and print Anglo-Saxon patterns.
- To have the opportunity to design and make an Anglo-Saxon home.
- Children will sculpt Viking gods
- They will use tools to carve Runic letters into different media.